“A Day of Unity”

When: Monday October 5, 2009
Time: 7:00 p.m.
Where: Trumbull County Courthouse Square, Warren OH
Host: Someplace Safe, Inc.

Someplace Safe, Inc. will celebrate its annual Unity Day observance. We recognize this day as a means of demonstrating remembrance and respect for the victims of domestic violence as well as celebrating the survivors. In addition, we re-affirm the commitment of community members who work within the fields of service such as:

Law Enforcement
Judicial/Legal members
Medical/EMS/Health Care professionals
Mental Health & Social Service professionals
Educational professionals
Clergy members

Unity Day is celebrated in conjunction with National Domestic Violence Awareness Month because October marks the month of national observance. Across the nation, it's traditional for communities to gather on the first Monday in October to participate in candlelight ceremonies to remember those who have experienced domestic violence, lost their lives because of domestic violence, or have survived domestic violence.

This year's theme will be “Intervention.” The evening's guest speaker will be Judge Thomas Gysegem, of Domestic Violence Court of Warren Municipal Courthouse. A powerful representation of victims will be displayed and a new theme song will be celebrated.

Community members are invited to participate in the events of Unity Day and contribute to honoring victims, survivors, and dedicated professionals who choose to serve our community in the various service fields touched by the effects of domestic violence.

If you would like to volunteer to assist in Unity Day preparations or for more information, please contact Someplace Safe, Inc. at 330-393-3003.
